1. In case of any dispute between either Contracting Party and the investor of the other Contracting Party, which may arise in connection with the investments, including disputes, which concern the amount, terms of and procedure for payment of compensation provided for in Article 5 hereof or with the procedure for effecting a transfer of payments provided for in Article 7 hereof, a notification in writing shall be handed in, accompanied with detailed comments which the investor shall forward to the Contracting Party involved in the dispute. The parties to the dispute shall exert their best efforts to settle that dispute by way of negotiations.

2. In the event the dispute cannot be resolved through negotiations within six months as of the date of the written notification as mentioned in Item 1 hereof above, then the dispute shall be passed over for consideration to:

- φ the International Center for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID);
- φ the Court of Arbitration for Art;
- φ an "ad hoc" arbitration tribunal, in conformity with the Arbitration Regulations of the United Nations Commission for International Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

3. The award of arbitration shall be final and binding upon both parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party shall undertake to execute such an award in conformity with its respective legislation.

Article 10

Resolution of Disputes Between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties as to the interpretation and application of this Treaty, shall be resolved by way of negotiations.

2. In the event a dispute cannot be resolved through negotiations within six months as of the notification in writing of the origin of a dispute, then at the request of either Contracting Party, it shall be passed over for consideration, to the arbitration tribunal.

3. A arbitration tribunal shall be set up on a case-by-case basis according to the following procedure. The Contracting Parties, each of them, shall appoint one member of the arbitration tribunal within two months as of the receipt of notification of hearing to be held by an arbitration tribunal. Then, those two members of the tribunal shall select a citizen of a third country who, given the consent thereto of both Contracting Parties shall be appointed to act as a chairperson of the tribunal within one month as of the appointment of the two other members of the tribunal.

4. In the event the required appointments have not been made within the dates specified in Item 3 of this Article, then, unless the parties have agreed otherwise, either of the Contracting Parties may turn to the Chairman of the International Court of Justice with a request to make such appointments. If the Chairman is a citizen of the state of either Contracting Party, or if he is in no position, for whatever reason to perform that function, then the Vice-Chairman of the International Court of Justice shall be asked to make said appointments. If the Vice-Chairman is also a citizen of the state of either Contracting Party or if he is for any other reason in no position to discharge the said function, then the necessary appointments shall be made by a member of the International Court of Justice who comes next in seniority who is not a citizen of either Contracting Party.

5. The arbitration tribunal shall take a decision by a majority vote. The decision shall be final and binding upon either of the Contracting Parties. The arbitration tribunal shall determine the procedure of its own work as it deems it fit.

6. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs involved in the activity of the member of the tribunal appointed by it and in its representation in the arbitration hearing; the outlays connected with the activity of the Chairman of the arbitration tribunal, and also other expenditures shall be shared equally by the Contracting Parties. The court, however, shall have the right to envisage in its decision that one of the Contracting Parties shall bear a greater portion of expenditures and that decision shall be binding upon both Contracting Parties.

Article 11 Consultations

The representatives of the Contracting Parties shall hold consultations, in case of need, on issues concerning the interpretation or application of this Treaty. The consultations shall be held at the suggestion of either Contracting Party, while the time and place of their convocation shall be coordinated through diplomatic channels.

Article 12 Application of the Treaty

This Treaty shall apply to all investments carried out by the investors of one Contracting Party on the territory of the other Contracting Party, as of December 24, 1917.

Article 13 Amendments

1. Given the mutual consent thereto, the Contracting Parties shall have the right to make necessary amendments and addenda to this Treaty, which shall be the subject of relevant Protocols and shall be an integral part of this Treaty, after which each of the Contracting Parties has notified the other of the fulfilment of the procedures inside the state required for the Protocol to take effect.

2. Any other Contracting Party wishing to accede to this Treaty may do so with consent of the present Contracting Parties.

Treaty 14
Effective Date and Term of Effectiveness
